

Alpha Fine Foods

Alpha Fine Foods Limited is a division of the Alpha Group that specialises in processing and importing, premium quality, temperature-controlled food products for regional distribution.

Alpha Fine Foods is the region's sole importer and distributor of a range of products that include New Zealand and Australian lamb, premium Kenya highland beef & milk fed white veal, Norwegian smoked & fresh salmon, frozen breaded products and ready to eat meals, a wide range of marine products, poultry and dairy products.

Started in September 7, 1994, Alpha Fine Foods was established when the food distribution industry was burgeoning and has grown with that momentum to establish itself as a premier supplier of quality food products within East Africa.

With a wide product range, affordable prices, time bound supplies and assured customer support, it has secured a noteworthy image for itself in the regional market. Alpha Fine Foods has pioneered in the introduction of many exotic products into the local and regional market and is considered to be a good source of temperature controlled and other food products from all over the world. It has exclusive distribution rights of a number of products from all corners of the globe and most of the major hotels, game lodges, restaurants, schools, hospitals, catering institutions, super markets and other retail establishments in this region are served by us.
